

New Year—New Leadership
Introducing the Salt Lake
Chapter APICS
President: Grant Dalton

Mark Your Calendar

I am happy and excited to be helping out and taking over the duties as President for the remainder of the year. Merri Rich has been amazing to work with and I know that she will continue to be even more help to all of the other chapters in the district in her new position on the District Board.

I am looking forward to finishing out this year with the scheduled plant tours, Supply Chain Game in March and the PDM's including our Top Management Night. My main goal as President is to bring you what you are looking for in education.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with suggestions on what you would like to hear about in the next PDM. We will be happy to set up Seminars or Classes and bring these educational opportunities to your company.

Check out our current Lunch and Learn Webinar Series that we are offering on Replenishment / Re-Ordering Systems January 10th and the next session dealing with MRP Fundamentals on February 6th. Again I am looking forward to the rest of this year and I hope you to see you all at the next PDM.

Cheers,

Grant Dalton, President

Become an APICS Volunteer

APICS, the global leader and premier source of the body of knowledge in operations management, including production, inventory, supply chain, materials management, purchasing, and logistics, needs volunteers to serve on its 2008 APICS committees. APICS is calling for dedicated volunteers with diverse perspectives to drive the strategic direction of APICS.

Member involvement through an active committee structure is essential to achieving our mission. Committee success depends on a strong partnership between volunteer leaders and staff members with clear roles and responsibilities. APICS committees are strategic in nature, and function in alignment with the APICS three-year strategic plan.

If you want to get involved in APICS and be a part of a team that sets the course on industry-advancing initiatives, The application is available online before Friday, January 18, 2008. If you prefer, download a volunteer application form and fax it to (703) 354-8662 or e-mail it to chaprel@apics.org. www.apics.org
